

The idea of having small stations having to record and keep these recordings is going to be costly. In turn we would pass the cost to our customers who are small business themselves and ads revenue decreases instead of increases. Not a good idea. Just another way to put smaller business out of business.